

We are excited about the positive response to our new planned giving e-news! Our goal is to provide interesting and helpful articles to inform your long-term planning about personal finances and philanthropy. How can you most effectively support the causes that matter to you at every stage of life? In this issue, we cover the ease of online giving and affordable ways to contribute to your favorite organizations — like the AMCP Foundation! Plus, we have a tool just for our readers: a checklist to conduct an annual review of your estate plan. Email us with suggestions for topics to include in Aligning Tomorrow's Pathways.

Why You Need to Review Your Plan Today

Take time to review your estate plan at least once a year so that it reflects any changes in your life.
