AMCP Applauds Congressional Passage of PIE Act

On Dec. 23, Congress passed the Pre-approval Information Exchange (PIE) Act of 2022, AMCP's top legislative priority! The bill will save months, or even years, in review of new treatments for patients — time that could save lives. AMCP started the PIE movement back in 2016, and we applaud Representatives Brett Guthrie and Anna Eshoo for their bipartisan leadership, as well as commend cosponsors Scott Peters, Morgan Griffith, Doris Matsui, and Michael Burgess for their support. Thank you, AMCP members, for your continued advocacy on critical issues like the PIE Act.

CE Opportunity: Managed Care Approach to Ovarian Cancer Care with Poly(ADP-Ribose) Polymerase Inhibitors

AMCP and Medscape Oncology are pleased to announce the release of a 30-minute video activity focused on the managed care approach to Poly(ADP-Ribose) Polymerase Inhibitors for ovarian cancer (OC) care. This program will outline the clinical utility of PARP inhibitors in advanced ovarian cancer; review considerations important in delivering evidence-based, cost-effective therapy in OC; and summarize the role of managed care pharmacists in coordinating care with the interprofessional team to achieve optimal patient outcomes.

Apply To Join a 2023 AMCP Advisory Group by Jan. 20

Advisory groups play an important role in guiding AMCP efforts on critical topics. In 2023, AMCP will launch three advisory groups focused on developing tools and resources for managed care pharmacy in digital therapeutics, health disparities, and the role of patient input in payer decision-making. Managed care professionals and AMCP members at the director-level (or-equivalent) and actively work in a capacity where health care, formulary, and or benefit design decisions are part of their role should apply. The advisory groups will start in early 2023 and run for 12 months. Learn more and apply today!
