The JMCP editorial advisory board approves standards for accepting sponsored supplements which typically concentrate on a single topic and provide educational opportunities to AMCP members.

July: The manuscript rejection rate reaches 33% and is described as a positive indicator of high-quality submissions. Editor-in-Chief Louise Sargent states, "Now our biggest challenge is not the dearth of academic articles, but processing and publishing accepted articles as quickly as possible."

September: The mission statement is updated. JMCP is dedicated to providing managed care pharmacists, associates, and students with the tools to excel in their daily practices by focusing on (1) Policy: providing a forum for in-depth discussion of issues of topical and long-term importance, (2) Practice: presenting information of research and educational value to the membership, and (3) Research: publishing research that increases the quality of research standards used in managed care pharmacy practice and helps apply that research to improve the practice of managed care pharmacy."

January: The first supplement is published. The topic is ‘Pharmacoeconomics and Outcomes Research: Evaluating the Studies.”

April: Abstracts from JMCP’s annual meeting are published in JMCP for the first time. Twenty-four abstracts were presented.

Mary: The manuscript rejection rate reaches 33% and is described as a positive indicator of high-quality submissions. Editor-in-Chief Louise Sargent states, "Now our biggest challenge is not the dearth of academic articles, but processing and publishing accepted articles as quickly as possible.”

July: Craig Stern RPh, PharmD is named Editor-in-Chief.

September: The mission statement is updated. JMCP is dedicated to providing managed care pharmacists, associates, and students with the tools to excel in their daily practices by focusing on (1) Policy: providing a forum for in-depth discussion of issues of topical and long-term importance, (2) Practice: presenting information of research and educational value to the membership, and (3) Research: publishing research that increases the quality of research standards used in managed care pharmacy practice and helps apply that research to improve the practice of managed care pharmacy.”

January: The first supplement is published. The topic is ‘Pharmacoeconomics and Outcomes Research: Evaluating the Studies.”

April: Abstracts from JMCP’s annual meeting are published in JMCP for the first time. Twenty-four abstracts were presented.
The number of issues published each year increases from 9 to 12 issues.

March: The Journal of Managed Care Pharmacy is renamed as the Journal of Managed Care & Specialty Pharmacy to embrace the importance of specialty pharmacists. The cover design is also updated to align with AMCP’s brand.

April: Abstracts from the Annual meeting were moved from the journal pages to a supplement issue, because of the exponential growth in presented abstracts. There were 243 abstracts presented in 2014, compared to 24 in 2000.

December: JMCP launches a journal club resource—a monthly series of questions to facilitate a critique of a specific article published in JMCP.

December: New article categories are announced: Research, Research Brief, Systematic Review, Best Practices, Viewpoints, Letters to the Editor, and AMCP-Meeting Proceedings.

December: www.JMCP.org moved to a new website platform with enhanced search capabilities.

June: JMCP launches a new option for authors to select—Express Publication Ahead of Print. This option expedites the timeline from acceptance to online publication to only 5 weeks.

June: Robert P. Navarro, PharmD is named Acting Editor-in-Chief.

June: Michael H. Kim, MD; Kelly F. Bell, PharmD, MSPhr; Dinara Makenbaeva, MD; Daniel Wiederkehr, BS; Jay Lin, PhD, MBA; Paulo Caleb Junior Lima Santos, PharmD, PhD; Renata Alonso Gadi Soares, PharmD, PhD; Stacie G. Gennaro, PharmD; Jennifer L. Russick, PharmD; and Paul J. Ginter, PharmD, BCOP, FAPhA join the Editorial Board.

March: John I. MacKoulak, PhD is named Editor-in-Chief.

May: Three Assistant Editors join the editorial team: Laura E. Happe, PharmD, MPH, Eleanor M. Perfetto, PhD, MS, and Karen L. Rascalii, PhD.

March–February: The traditional cover art, which had been used since 1995, is replaced with photographs of former AMCP presidents in honor of AMCP’s 25th anniversary.

October: Abstracts from AMCP’s Naus meeting are published in JMCP for the first time.

The number of issues published each year increases from 9 to 12 issues.

JMCP celebrates its 25th anniversary. To commemorate this milestone, each month JMCP publishes a reprint of an original article from a previous year, dating as far back as 1975. The reprint is accompanied by a contemporary reflection that considers the historical significance of the topic, as well as the current and future state.

May: JMCP introduces a new mission statement “To advance science, expertise, and evidence-based decision making to improve patient health through access to high-quality, cost-effective medications and other therapies.”

July: The editorial advisory board forms a Racial Injustice Task Group to examine what actions can be taken by the journal to reduce discrimination and inequality among underrepresented minority groups.

September: AMCP and JMCP are awarded a Certificate of Commendation from the American Institute of the History of Pharmacy for the 25th anniversary article series chronicling the history of managed care pharmacy.

November: A refreshed and modern cover and interior design are unveiled with the November issue.

JMCP celebrates its 25th anniversary. To commemorate this milestone, each month JMCP publishes a reprint of an original article from a previous year, dating as far back as 1975. The reprint is accompanied by a contemporary reflection that considers the historical significance of the topic, as well as the current and future state.

May: JMCP introduces a new mission statement “To advance science, expertise, and evidence-based decision making to improve patient health through access to high-quality, cost-effective medications and other therapies.”

July: The editorial advisory board forms a Racial Injustice Task Group to examine what actions can be taken by the journal to reduce discrimination and inequality among underrepresented minority groups.

September: AMCP and JMCP are awarded a Certificate of Commendation from the American Institute of the History of Pharmacy for the 25th anniversary article series chronicling the history of managed care pharmacy.

November: A refreshed and modern cover and interior design are unveiled with the November issue.