Committee Selection Process

AMCP MISSION

To improve patient health by ensuring access to high-quality cost-effective medications and other therapies.

AMCP GOVERNANCE

AMCP is governed by the AMCP Board of Directors. The Board establishes the strategic direction and mission, sets and guides major policy decisions, approves the annual budget, oversees the management of resources, provides insight and perspective on the managed care pharmacy profession, and serves as advisors to the AMCP CEO.

Current issues impacting managed care pharmacy and the governance of AMCP are addressed by the Board with input from the CEO and the Committees. All policy-making authority is vested with the Board of Directors.

COMMITTEE SELECTION PROCESS

The annual committee selection process begins each Fall with a call for applications. This process is designed to foster inclusive leadership development, ensure strategic alignment with AMCP's strategic priorities, and uphold best practices in volunteer engagement.

Leadership Succession

Committee Chair appointments are finalized in December, followed by Committee Member appointments in January. All applicants will be notified in January. To promote leadership continuity and institutional knowledge, the current Committee Chair, working in collaboration with the Board and Staff Liaison, will recommend the incoming Chair. Consideration is given to the current Vice Chair and committee members who have demonstrated leadership potential and alignment with the committee's mission.

The outgoing and incoming Chair along with the Board and Staff Liaison will develop and recommend Committee Members for the upcoming term. This roster is informed by application submissions, diversity of perspectives, relevant expertise, and the needs of the committee.

Approval and Appointments

The rosters are submitted to the AMCP President-elect for approval. The President-elect also appoints Board Liaisons to each committee to ensure strong governance and alignment with organizational priorities.

Committee Members are appointed through this process for a one-year term, unless otherwise specified in the committee's monograph. Reappointments are based on performance, engagement, and evolving committee needs.

AMCP Strategic Priorities

Adopted by the Board of Directors and developed by the AMCP Leadership Team. AMCP's mission is supported by four strategic priorities that reflect the most compelling opportunities to impact managed care pharmacy through optimizing value, addressing disparities in medication use, amplifying the organization's value and voice, and driving our performance.

PURPOSE

AMCP's strategic priorities are designed to provide flexibility given the ever-changing health care landscape and adapted and refocused based on the needs of our members and the patients they serve.

Managed care pharmacy has a small footprint in the health care industry but influences the lives of 300 million Americans. By growing membership and utilizing the expertise of its members and corporate partners, AMCP will ensure that managed care pharmacy is a leader in national discussions on efforts to optimize patient access and affordability of medications and strengthen the foundations of equitable, cost-effective care. We will continue building a strong, vibrant organization that is always #AMCPMember1st.

Serving on an AMCP Committee

AMCP members may serve on only one committee per year. Committee members cannot serve more than three consecutive terms on the same Committee. Committee members who move from the Vice Chair position into the Chair role may be extended for an additional year to serve in this capacity.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

AMCP committees rely on active participation from all members to achieve their goals. Members should attend meetings regularly and contribute to committee tasks. The Chair ensures objectives aligned with organizational needs and reviews member participation with the Staff Liaison to confirm obligations are met.

To ensure effective participation, committee members should:

- Be proactive: Take the initiative to contribute ideas and solutions.
- Communicate openly: Share thoughts and feedback during meetings and through other communication channels.
- Collaborate effectively: Work together with other members to achieve common goals.
- Stay committed: Dedicate the necessary time and effort to fulfill committee responsibilities.
- Be accountable: Take ownership of tasks and follow through on commitments.

By adhering to these best practices, committee members can help ensure the success of their committees and AMCP.

TIME COMMITMENT

Serving on an AMCP committee requires a time commitment to fulfill the responsibilities associated with volunteer leader engagement and to help achieve the committee's objectives. Committee members are required to attend AMCP's two live meetings as well as all meetings of their assigned committee. Members should allocate time for reading, preparing for activities, completing assignments, and communicating with others.

BOARD LIAISON ROLE ON THE COMMITTEE

The Board Liaison plays a crucial role in connecting the AMCP Board of Directors with the committee, ensuring strategic alignment, clear communication, and shared understanding. Appointed by the President-elect, the Board Liaison is expected to attend all committee meetings as a full voting member and offer objective perspectives to guide the committee's efforts in support of AMCP's mission, strategic priorities, and committee objectives. Participation in specific assignments is possible if the Board Liaison's schedule permits.

STAFF LIAISON ROLE ON THE COMMITTEE

The Staff Liaison works with the Committee Chair, Vice Chair, and members to support the committee's work in line with AMCP's mission and priorities. They convey recommendations to AMCP leadership, report decisions to the committee, and ensure procedures are followed.
